OYSTER FESTIVAL

2009

ET TALONG BEACH WATERFRONT
SUNDAY 8TH NOVEMBER 9:30AM – 4PM

Showcasing a variety of oysters from the Brisbane Water Oyster Farmers, the Broken Bay Oyster (Patonga) Farmers and the famous 'Pacifics' from the Hawkesbury River Farmers.

BLUES ACROSS the BAY

Blues fans, get ready for the 8th annual Blues Across the Bay to be held on Saturday 21st November this year.

Although Blues Across the Bay is only a very small event by festival standards, we do manage to pack a huge show into a 4-hour time period. There is only enough space for 600 people but those 600 always go away with great memories of a special day at the Broken Bay Sport and Recreation Centre.

It's just a short ferry ride from Patonga but that ferry ride delivers patrons to a hidden paradise at the mouth of the Hawkesbury River and an unforgettable afternoon of lazing and listening.

Word is spreading like wildfire and securing tickets is now the big challenge so don't be late for this one.

We are beginning this year with a Darkinjung Welcome to Country Ceremony and then a stellar lineup will entertain us. "New" local Jack Evans and his amazing band will be playing some very edgy blues to warm us up for the afternoon. Next, the amazing barrel-house piano-playing and gravel-voiced Pugsley Buzzard will delight and entertain. And to top it all off, the multi-award winning Australian Queen of the Blues, Gail Page with the wonderful Parris Macleod Band.

Tickets go on sale from 1st October - check out full details on the website dogs, and their owners just having fun - not a Curlew in sight - but lots of water birds, lorikeets, king parrots, plovers, sparrows, finch's, currawongs, and more.....

EDITORS NOTES:

NOVEMBER!! What ever happened to OCTOBER??

Last Weekend we had the PUTT PUTT REGATTA ! What a weekend this was! To start we sat under the stars and listened to Bob Piggott's Band while enjoying THE COWRIE's catering – loved the Waigu Beef Burger! It was a great event and attracted 160 happy punters. Make sure you don't miss out next year!

Then, on the Sunday , we had both boats busy participating in the best event on the Central Coast – PUTT PUTT REGATTA & WOODEN BOAT FESTIVAL. The day was superb, weather fantastic , boats were just a delight and the on land activities/displays were lots of fun. Congratulations to all the organising committee for such an outstanding event for the Central Coast! CCF had its best ever passenger day with more than 550 people travelling on the MIGHTY catamaran – SARATOGA! The crew were flat out and did a great job – thanks Danny & Sam !

Now – the bad news! As those who know us – we are dog lovers- have been for years and will be forever! Recently there has been some unfortunate, misguided, actions whereby the Council has been forced into closing Dog Exercise areas on the Saratoga/Davistown Peninsula- and ?? more to come. There are some concerns that an endangered bird – not local to our area – the Bush Stone-Curlew's habitat is being destroyed by dogs ( not cats, kids on bikes, exercising humans – dogs!). We feel strongly that this is unjust – however we also wish to see some resolution in this matter – and speedy at that ! As there are only 36 such areas left , concerns are raised as to how dog owners can access these other areas ( especially if you are frail/elderly or have no transport – bus drivers don't like dogs!) . We need to support and encourage responsible dog ownership, and we also need to support any perceived endangered flora or fauna- in other words we need to co habitat – and not shut the gate!

If you are a dog owner , or just a concerned member of the public, we encourage you to join CC BARCS –this way you can be part of a like minded group and help us to defend our rights as dog owners to exercise our dogs – and ourselves! Visit <http://www.gosfordgrooming.com.au/news/ccbarc.html> and you will be able to print off the membership form.

NB: there is a gathering of DOG OWNERS Friday 6th Nov at Iloura Reserve Beach area @ 4.30 pm – come along!
